

JOSEPH W. CHINN, JR., IS ELECTED TO JUDGESHIP

Succeeds Late Thomas A. Blakey on Bench of Twelfth Circuit.

PITS FOR DEBT COMMISSION

Albemarle Delegate Blasted to Succeed the Late John B. Moon—Precedent Cited in Action of House on Death of Senator Berry.

The General Assembly yesterday elected Joseph W. Chinn, Jr., of Richmond County, to the judgeship of the Twelfth Circuit, to succeed the late Judge Thomas A. Blakey. Mr. Chinn, who is about thirty-five years old, is regarded as one of the most able lawyers of the State. In accepting the judgeship he will be forced to give up a large and lucrative practice at the bar.

There was no nomination other than that of Mr. Chinn and he received a very large vote in the election. In the Senate his name was placed in nomination by Senator C. Harding Baker, of Northumberland.

Mr. Chinn is popular throughout his district, and has many friends all over the State. He will serve the unexpired term for which Judge Blakey was chosen to succeed the late Judge B. Wright.

PITS TO GO ON DEBT COMMISSION

D. H. Pitts, of Albemarle, It Was Stated Yesterday, Will Be Chosen by the Legislature for the Vacancy on the State Debt Commission, Caused by the Death of John B. Moon, of Charlottesville.

Senator R. B. Early, Jr., of Greene, offered a resolution empowering the House of Delegates to elect one of its members to the vacancy. The resolution was adopted, and it is understood that Mr. Pitt will get the place. When former Senator Taylor Berry, of Albemarle, died, the House passed a resolution to permit the Senate to elect his successor. This action established a precedent.

PROGRAM OF TAX REFORM IS FULLY COMPLETED

(Continued from First Page.)

It is expected to have passed before the close of the session. The measures of special interest to Richmond and Henrico counties are Colonel R. L. Leedy's bill providing for an appropriation of $7,500 to pay the expenses of the Richmond Infantry Blues on their contemplated trip to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco, Delegate Julian Gunn's bill providing for the establishment of night schools in Henrico County.

ANOTHER INTERESTING FEATURE OF THE LEGISLATURE WAS THE ELECTION OF J. W. CHINN, JR., BY THE UNANIMOUS VOICE OF BOTH HOUSES, TO SUCCEED THE LATE JUDGE THOMAS A. BLAKEY, OF THE TWELFTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Chinn, of Richmond, was elected to succeed the late Judge Thomas A. Blakey, of the Twelfth Judicial District. The House of Delegates elected him by a unanimous vote. The Senate also elected him by a unanimous vote. Mr. Chinn is a young lawyer of great ability and is well known in the State.

THE HOUSE

The opening of the morning session of the House of Delegates yesterday was marked by the adoption of a resolution providing for the establishment of a committee to investigate the administration of the State Debt Commission.

The House of Delegates yesterday adopted a resolution providing for the establishment of a committee to investigate the administration of the State Debt Commission. The committee will be composed of members of both Houses. The resolution was adopted by a large majority.

The House of Delegates yesterday adopted a resolution providing for the establishment of a committee to investigate the administration of the State Debt Commission. The committee will be composed of members of both Houses. The resolution was adopted by a large majority.

INFLUENCE AS SUPERVISORS

The Judiciary might be influenced as readily as the supervisors, Mr. Leedy retorted. Delegate Norris, of Albemarle, made an earnest argument in support of the amendment proposed by Mr. Leedy. The amendment was adopted by a large majority.

The Judiciary might be influenced as readily as the supervisors, Mr. Leedy retorted. Delegate Norris, of Albemarle, made an earnest argument in support of the amendment proposed by Mr. Leedy. The amendment was adopted by a large majority.

was he questioning me. I merely shook my head and nodded my head. "Exactly so, Mr. Speaker," Colonel Leedy said. "The gentleman from Richmond was merely waving his hand and nodding his head."

Delegate Jordan, of Pulaski, spoke against the amendment. He said that the appointment of board members by the House would throw the tax question into the hands of the House. "Even to-day politics is playing a part in the assessment of lands in my section of the State," he declared.

Mr. Gordon stated as an objection to appointment by Judges: "Appointment by a Judge is perpetual. You change your Judge if the appointment is not what you should have. You can change your supervisors."

The Powell amendment was rejected by a vote of 22 to 23. The amendment provided for the rate of $14 a day for Commonwealth's Attorneys for their services in erroneous land assessment cases was then rejected by the same vote.

HOUSE AFTERNOON SESSION

Delegate S. P. Powell, of Spotsylvania, resumed his speech against the bill providing for the appointment of members of boards of local review by Corporation and Circuit Court Judges when the House reassembled at 4 o'clock.

He was interrupted by a volley of questions fired at him from all parts of the House by members demanding that he explain the charges he made at the morning session against Judge R. H. L. Chichester, of the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit.

"I repeat that I am able to prove such charges as I have made," he said. "I said and I repeat that the Judge's appointments are made with reference to his political significance."

Audrey G. Weaver asked: "Did you charge Judge Chichester with political corruption? I ask because I was not in the House when you spoke on the subject."

Mr. Powell said: "I do not charge the Judge with moral turpitude," replied Mr. Powell. "If that is what you mean and what you want to know."

"What I want to know," said Mr. Weaver, "is whether the gentleman means to charge Judge Chichester with any sort of corruption. That's plain enough, isn't it?"

"I have already answered you," Mr. Powell replied. "I understand you this morning to charge Judge Chichester with political corruption. Those were the words you used. A hundred of us heard you. What I want to know is, do you still stand by the charges you made?"

"I understand you," said Mr. Powell. "I understand you this morning to charge Judge Chichester with political corruption. Those were the words you used. A hundred of us heard you. What I want to know is, do you still stand by the charges you made?"

"I understand you," said Mr. Powell. "I understand you this morning to charge Judge Chichester with political corruption. Those were the words you used. A hundred of us heard you. What I want to know is, do you still stand by the charges you made?"

"I understand you," said Mr. Powell. "I understand you this morning to charge Judge Chichester with political corruption. Those were the words you used. A hundred of us heard you. What I want to know is, do you still stand by the charges you made?"

"I understand you," said Mr. Powell. "I understand you this morning to charge Judge Chichester with political corruption. Those were the words you used. A hundred of us heard you. What I want to know is, do you still stand by the charges you made?"

"I understand you," said Mr. Powell. "I understand you this morning to charge Judge Chichester with political corruption. Those were the words you used. A hundred of us heard you. What I want to know is, do you still stand by the charges you made?"

"I understand you," said Mr. Powell. "I understand you this morning to charge Judge Chichester with political corruption. Those were the words you used. A hundred of us heard you. What I want to know is, do you still stand by the charges you made?"

"I understand you," said Mr. Powell. "I understand you this morning to charge Judge Chichester with political corruption. Those were the words you used. A hundred of us heard you. What I want to know is, do you still stand by the charges you made?"

"I understand you," said Mr. Powell. "I understand you this morning to charge Judge Chichester with political corruption. Those were the words you used. A hundred of us heard you. What I want to know is, do you still stand by the charges you made?"

"I understand you," said Mr. Powell. "I understand you this morning to charge Judge Chichester with political corruption. Those were the words you used. A hundred of us heard you. What I want to know is, do you still stand by the charges you made?"

"I understand you," said Mr. Powell. "I understand you this morning to charge Judge Chichester with political corruption. Those were the words you used. A hundred of us heard you. What I want to know is, do you still stand by the charges you made?"

"I understand you," said Mr. Powell. "I understand you this morning to charge Judge Chichester with political corruption. Those were the words you used. A hundred of us heard you. What I want to know is, do you still stand by the charges you made?"

"I understand you," said Mr. Powell. "I understand you this morning to charge Judge Chichester with political corruption. Those were the words you used. A hundred of us heard you. What I want to know is, do you still stand by the charges you made?"

"I understand you," said Mr. Powell. "I understand you this morning to charge Judge Chichester with political corruption. Those were the words you used. A hundred of us heard you. What I want to know is, do you still stand by the charges you made?"

tested, and the remainder of the afternoon session was little more than a succession of roll calls. The amendments to the boards of review bill were rejected, one after another.

The series of Senate bills, numbered from 56 to 102, were taken up in regular order and passed, except No. 99, which had not yet come from the Senate.

Half a dozen local measures of no general interest were also passed.

The Senate was called to order yesterday morning at 11 o'clock by Lieutenant-Governor J. Taylor Ellyson.

A communication from the Governor was received asking for an appropriation of $100,000 to fight the foot-and-mouth disease. The matter was referred to the Committee on Finance.

The Senate also received a resolution from the House asking permission for the introduction of certain local bills.

A communication was received from the Newport News Ship Building Company, inviting the president of the Senate and a delegation of five members to be present at the launching of the battleship, Pennsylvania, at Newport News, March 16, 1915.

The Senate also received a resolution from the House asking permission for the introduction of certain local bills.

A communication was received from the Newport News Ship Building Company, inviting the president of the Senate and a delegation of five members to be present at the launching of the battleship, Pennsylvania, at Newport News, March 16, 1915.

The Senate also received a resolution from the House asking permission for the introduction of certain local bills.

A communication was received from the Newport News Ship Building Company, inviting the president of the Senate and a delegation of five members to be present at the launching of the battleship, Pennsylvania, at Newport News, March 16, 1915.

The Senate also received a resolution from the House asking permission for the introduction of certain local bills.

A communication was received from the Newport News Ship Building Company, inviting the president of the Senate and a delegation of five members to be present at the launching of the battleship, Pennsylvania, at Newport News, March 16, 1915.

The Senate also received a resolution from the House asking permission for the introduction of certain local bills.

A communication was received from the Newport News Ship Building Company, inviting the president of the Senate and a delegation of five members to be present at the launching of the battleship, Pennsylvania, at Newport News, March 16, 1915.

The Senate also received a resolution from the House asking permission for the introduction of certain local bills.

A communication was received from the Newport News Ship Building Company, inviting the president of the Senate and a delegation of five members to be present at the launching of the battleship, Pennsylvania, at Newport News, March 16, 1915.

The Senate also received a resolution from the House asking permission for the introduction of certain local bills.

A communication was received from the Newport News Ship Building Company, inviting the president of the Senate and a delegation of five members to be present at the launching of the battleship, Pennsylvania, at Newport News, March 16, 1915.

The Senate also received a resolution from the House asking permission for the introduction of certain local bills.

A communication was received from the Newport News Ship Building Company, inviting the president of the Senate and a delegation of five members to be present at the launching of the battleship, Pennsylvania, at Newport News, March 16, 1915.

The Senate also received a resolution from the House asking permission for the introduction of certain local bills.

A communication was received from the Newport News Ship Building Company, inviting the president of the Senate and a delegation of five members to be present at the launching of the battleship, Pennsylvania, at Newport News, March 16, 1915.

The Senate also received a resolution from the House asking permission for the introduction of certain local bills.

A communication was received from the Newport News Ship Building Company, inviting the president of the Senate and a delegation of five members to be present at the launching of the battleship, Pennsylvania, at Newport News, March 16, 1915.

The Senate also received a resolution from the House asking permission for the introduction of certain local bills.

A communication was received from the Newport News Ship Building Company, inviting the president of the Senate and a delegation of five members to be present at the launching of the battleship, Pennsylvania, at Newport News, March 16, 1915.

The Senate also received a resolution from the House asking permission for the introduction of certain local bills.

will eliminate much needless research work—once the proper records are established.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

the sum of $100,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the prevention and eradication of the foot and mouth disease among the live stock of this State; and to confer upon the Governor, the chairman of the State Live Stock Sanitary Board and the State Veterinarian certain powers in relation thereto; and to appropriate the further sum that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

The Senate Finance Committee was in session yesterday afternoon, and it was stated last night that it will today report the Cannon bill, granting annuities on infirmities, with the recommendation that it do not pass.

The bill as so amended as to meet some objections against it and passed in the Senate. It is believed that it will be defeated in the House by a substantial majority.

BOY SCOUTS MEET
Interesting Speeches Heard at Meeting.
New Movements on Foot.

Interesting speeches by several of the Boy Scouts featured the session of the Scoutmaster's School for Boy Scouts of America, held last night at the Mechanics' Institute. Among those who addressed the gathering were Scoutmaster Hunter C. Stodd, of Troop No. 2; Scoutmaster Williams, of Troop No. 12; and Scoutmaster Pyle, of Troop No. 1. At the conclusion of these speeches Scout Executive Housman lectured on "Self-Government."

Mr. Housman spoke of the early stages of development in the life of a youth, emphasizing many valuable points in the training of younger scouts.

At the Business Men's Club last night the District Commissioners of the city, composed of Messrs. Stodd, Williams, Pyle, Walford, Day, Helms, and others, discussed various problems relative to the extension of the many districts in Richmond. Scout Executive Housman presided.

Yesterday afternoon several scouts awarded a cup.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

visited the different sections of the city and interpreted to the people the scout oath and law.

Scout Executive Housman visited the Western Union Telegraph Company's office and addressed a large group of messenger boys upon the subject of scouting. At the conclusion of his address ten boys decided to join the scouts. The Scout Executive then laid plans for the further development of this work.

To-night at 8 o'clock, at the Howitzers' Armory, Scoutmaster MacFarlane, with his assistants, will meet with the two grades of scouts for the purpose of developing the bugling and drum corps.

Scouts of Troop No. 12 are preparing to make a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

On Saturday afternoon Scout Commissioner Durrett and William Dodd were given a demonstration at the Grace Street Baptist Church on Friday evening. Several hundred invitations have been issued.